

studio E 10/18/23

this show was a disaster. i don't think oscar and the cameras captured how bad this show began. we worked super hard to script this show, with lots of big showmanship ideas. but our plans went to shit fast. in the end first song chris had the lamb mask on and knocked the light tower over. it careened into joe reyes' neck. chris fell on joe's pedal board and unplugged his rig. you can hear joe go silent.
