This message is for Sophie/soccermommy,

i played with Demitasse at the 502 in San Antonio Saturday night, opening the show for your band. You took the time to try to humiliate me from the stage during your set. You tried to call me out for a compliment I paid my girlfriend and sister as they entered the front area during our set. Anyways, you are an idiot and you could have made a couple of friends that night. Instead you made some enemies.

Erik and Joe from Demitasse

PS. You look bored when you play, and it's contagious.
